Ref: EGBA 53380, 1 November 1958

Excerpt from translation of Final Report of Local Police on Harry MAYWALD, confessed agent of KGB/00.

Berlin, 8 December 1958: Crimes committed by MAYWALD.

b. Violation of para. 49b, Sec. 1, German Penal Code.

...August 1958, MAYWALD ordered by MVD to determine residence of White Russian living in Munich, FRG. MAYWALD admitted having been informed by the MVD that this White Russian had been sentenced to death and that, after tracing him down, he was to be shot...

d. Violation of para. 100e of German Penal Code.

8th Mission

Viktor LARIONOFF, named by MAYWALD during his interrogation, could be identical with Viktor LARIONOFF, journalist, born on 13 July 1897 in Petersburg, residing at 19 Smaragbstrasse, Munich, FRG. LARIONOFF was warned by the Munich criminal police. The MVD is interested in LARIONOFF because LARIONOFF, as admitted by himself, in 1927 threw a bomb into the headquarters of the communist party in Leningrad, USSR. At that time he acted under instructions from a group of officers of the former White Russian Army.

MAYWALD stated he was told by the MVD that LARIONOFF, in absentia, was sentenced to death and that this sentence was to be executed illegally. MAYWALD therefore received the mission to locate LARIONOFF and determine the situation in LARIONOFF's residential area....
